‘We’re stronger when we work together’

MAYORS from across Holderness have come together to look to the future of the region and work to strengthen partnerships between their respective towns.

Cllrs Kristina Richardson, Stephen Prescott and Suzie Wright from Withernsea, Hornsea and Hedon attended the Lord Mayor of Hull and Admiral of the Humber’s civic service at the weekend.

At the service, they had the opportunity to speak informally about their combined objectives for the civic year ahead, along with the Lord Mayor of Kingston Upon Hull, Cllr Maria Coward.

All three Holderness mayors took up post over the past few months.

Meetings have already been scheduled for early July, and direct communication has been opened with a WhatsApp group for all the mayors to share ideas.

Hornsea, Withernsea and Hedon have each forged their own identities, histories and priorities and, viewed together, they can represent something much bigger than three individual towns.
